Significant Issues and Responsive Programming
April 1 – June 30, 2010

Following are the categories of issues/concerns determined by WBTV to be of significance in the service area. Under each are described typical and illustrative programs, broadcast during the period, to address those problems and needs. This listing is representative only. It is neither a comprehensive listing of all needs of the service areas as ascertained by the licensee nor the totality of the licensee's responsive programming to those needs.

Applicable CBS/network programming is attached by hard copy. All responsive local programming produced outside the already dedicated newscasts is aired in prime access time periods.

Utilizing information gathered from news personnel, WBTV staff members, local community groups and leaders, and viewer research the following list has been compiled and is the most current significant problems, needs, and interests within our community today. Below is a representative list:

Economy

Public Safety

Social/Human Services

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES:

ECONOMY

*04/08/10 Charlotte Home Sales (5:30 p.m. :19, 7:00 p.m. :19, 11:00 p.m. :23)
Great news for Charlotte's real estate market. The Queen City saw a big jump in home sales last month.*

4/19/10 Stretching Your Dollar: Allergy Meds (5:00 p.m. 1:43)

4/19/10 Stretching Your Dollar: Allergy Meds (7:00 p.m. 1:46)

This spring weather is nice but a good soaking rain would be just what the doctor ordered to help wash away the pollen torturing many of us. 40-million Americans suffer from seasonal allergies. Right now Charlotte ranks fifth worst city in the country to live if you're allergic. Treating the symptoms can be pricey. Maureen O'Boyle is On Your Side helping you feel better and save.

4/28/10 Foxx Government Consolidation (11:00 p.m. :13)

4/29/10 Foxx Government Consolidation (5:00 a.m. 2:00)

4/29/10 Consolidating Government (6:00 a.m. :38)

With all the talk of cutting the budget of schools, parks, and libraries, tonight Charlotte's mayor has an idea he thinks can save taxpayer money. Foxx wants to combine areas of the city and county government. WBTV's Tom Roussey On Your Side breaking this story tonight all new at 11:00.

5/3/2010 Costly School Lunches (5:30 p.m. 2:14)

Budget problems may mean tough times ahead as schools try to offer children healthier options in the lunch line.

And that's a big problem - because North Carolina ranks 14th in the nation when it comes to overweight kids. A few years ago - the General Assembly ordered schools in North Carolina to serve more fruits and veggies - and less junk food. But the state never offered to help pay for the healthier - and more expensive options.

05/04/10 Dow Plummets (5:30 p.m. :10)

It was a rough day for the rest of the market as well. The Dow- in a free fall - losing 225 points today. Analysts say investors are worried about European debt because of the economic crisis in Greece.

5/19/10 Budget Recommendations (6:00 a.m. :57)

This morning we're getting a complete look at The County Manager's budget cut recommendations. Harry Jones wants to slash 81 million dollars... And that impacts, schools, libraries, parks, and Veteran's services. Veteran's Services took a big hit in the recommendation. Jones wants to cut half of its budget. 6 out of 13 employees were already handed pink slips yesterday.

5/27/10 Morganton Grants (6:00 a.m. :49)

Today Governor Beverly Perdue will be in Morganton to talk about small business and jobs. The downtown area just got a State Main Street Program grant to help small businesses expand and create jobs. Eight businesses will get a piece of the quarter of a million dollars. It will be handed out as loans but if they stay in business and keep people on the job for five years they only have to repay 25 percent of it.

6/14/10 Auto Parts Jobs (5:30 p.m. :17)

Good news for North Carolina's economy and for those looking for a job. Auto-parts maker Magna Composites will expand its plants in Salisbury, Lenoir and Newton. It means 330 new jobs. The Governor's office said the plants could get 1 million dollars in tax breaks if those jobs last at least six years.

6/24/10 CMS Teacher Layoffs (11:00 p.m. :20)

Tonight we know it's not just low performing teachers getting fired in CMS. These layoffs hitting almost everyone. 530-CMS teachers got pink slips, 132 of those were classified as low performing. But the rest are being laid off because of teacher license issues, because they were short term hires or they lack seniority in the system. The layoffs take effect on July 1st.

6/30/10 Lottery Money (7:00 p.m. 1:55)

North Carolina's governor signs a state budget which involves moving around lottery money originally marked for schools. Education reporter Dedrick Russell looks at the impact the move could have on Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools.

PUBLIC SAFETY

4/15/10 Cyber-Turf – Protecting Your Kids (5:00 p.m. 1:04, 7:00 p.m. 1:04)

4/18/10 (5:00 a.m. 1:04, 6:00 a.m. 1:04)

Emily, Donna, and two women named Mary - brought their concerns to former White House Cyber Expert Theresa Payton. "They feel like every time they turn around I'm telling them about some site that just came out - they didn't know about it - don't know how to block it so their kids don't trip on it... they're really getting to a point where they're just sick of it."

Theresa showed them one place to start - websites like KidZui and YourSphere - free safe places where kids can set up an online world of their own. "they have their own account - you can read email - games are prescreened as safe - video clips that are prescreened."

4/27/10 Fire Safety Bowls (10:00 p.m. :40)

4/28/10 (5:00 a.m. :20)

Area students are celebrating a victory in the statewide Fire and Life Safety Bowl Championships. Last night the 15 teams of 4th and 5th graders met at Hopewell High School in north Mecklenburg County to compete. Two Mecklenburg County teams got first and second... Paw Creek in second and Mountain Island as the champion.

4/30/10 SC Boater Safety (5:30 p.m. :21)

A new boater safety law goes into effect - and a violation could cost you. Anyone 25 or younger must pass a boater safety course. The law applies to boats with 10 horsepower or more. If you violate it, you'll get a citation and have to pay court costs.

5/17/10 Toy Gun Recall (12Noon :45, 6:00 p.m. 1:33)

We're on your side with a consumer alert this noon about some toys your kids may have. The government is recalling nearly two-million toy dart gun sets after two boys choked to death on the rubber ends of the darts. The Auto Fire dart gun sets were imported by Henry Gordy, and sold at Family Dollar Stores.

5/21/10 Increased Police Patrols (11 p.m. 1:01)

5/22/10 (5:00 a.m. 1:01, 6:00 a.m. 1:01, 7:00 a.m.)

Tonight the CMPD tells us beefed up patrols will continue in violent parts of the city. But sometimes even a police presence doesn't help. Last night officers were out in force at this club on Independence Boulevard...but someone still tried to pull off a drive-by shooting. No one was hurt. Sources tell us this may have been a retaliation shooting for the murder of Jerman McJunkins.

5/27/10 Family Dog Incident (6:00 a.m. :24, 12Noon :24)

A press conference going on in Concord about investigation into whether or not a Cabarrus County animal control officer was justified in killing a family's pet. The sheriff's office says it was a matter of public safety. But the owners of Bella, a pit bull terrier, tell us the animal control officer admitted he shot the dog because he was tired of trying to catch her.

5/29/10 North Carolina Safety Course (6 p.m. :24, 10:00 p.m. :23, 11:00 p.m.:25)

A new North Carolina law requires anyone under 26 to complete a boating safety course before driving any boat with a motor over 10 horsepower. That includes most boats and jetskis. There is no fine for failing to complete course. But, the person will need to appear before a judge and pay court costs.

6/18/10 Swimming Safety Clinic – On Your Side Report (5:30 p.m. 1:30)

Wendy's fast food restaurant is going out into the deep this summer. The business launched a new program to teach kids water safety skills. Hundreds showed up today for a presentation. Paul Haren was there with some of his campers. They have to know that water is fun but it can be very dangerous.

6/24/10 See Click Fix – Home Safety Hazard (6:00 a.m. :30)

It's a See, Click, Fix investigation that takes us to the Plaza-Shamrock area in Charlotte. There's a home in the neighborhood that hasn't been lived in...for *years. And is in serious need of one extreme makeover. Take a look... a viewer took advantage of uploading the pictures on our see, click, fix page online. One neighbor wrote in saying the home is a safety hazard and is dragging down their property values. Our see, click, fix investigation is getting the ball rolling to get something done about it.

6/28/10 UNC Charlotte Police (10:00 p.m. 1:03, 11:00 p.m. 1:37)

6/29/10 (6:00 a.m. :45)

That report was released by UNC Charlotte after WBTV submitted a freedom of information act request, and the interim is promising to do better. Pledges of improved performance is coming from acting chief Jeff Baker days after an outside report found fault with UNC Charlotte's Department of Police and Public Safety. The 83 page report conducted by Lemap which is a college law enforcement accreditation agency cited man power issues calling staffing insufficient to cover its service area.

SOCIAL; HUMAN SERVICES

4/7/10 Medical Records Mix-Up (11:00 p.m. 1:23)

My name is J-U-D-Y. This came to a J-U-D-I Brown.

Judy Brown still remembers getting this letter from Cabarrus Family Medical, a CMC affiliate informing her her test results were normal. The only problem, she has never been to Cabarrus Family medicine. When she called their office, she discovered they also had birth date and social security number. Judy says they assured her only her contact information had been mixed up...but afraid it was worse, she also called CMC's customer care line. My date of birth is 5-9-53. This Judi Brown is 9-5-53.

4/14/10 Last Minute Tax Filers (7:00 p.m. :37)

Last minute tax filers - the deadline is near. A very busy H and R Block office in Dilworth today - The staff there tells us it's really easy to make silly little mistakes that could get your tax return sent back to you. Using a name that isn't exactly the same as what's on your social security card - or transposing one or two numbers - Waiting until the last minute doesn't help. And something to remember about mailing your taxes - The downtown post office branch on McDowell Street - and the processing center on Scott Futrell - are the only locations open late to postmark your tax forms.

4/26/10 Senior Scam Jam Promotion – Noon Show Guest Interview (12:00 Noon 2:35)

Annual Senior Scam Jam

Guest: Maryanne P. Dailey, Executive Director, BBB Consumer Foundation, CLT
The Better Business Bureau Consumer Foundation will present Senior Scam Jam on Wednesday, May 5, 2010, from 8 a.m. until 12:30 at Pritchard Memorial Baptist Church, located at 1117 South Blvd., Charlotte, NC 28203. Admission is free and refreshments will be provided.

4/29/10 Char-Meck Seniors Ctr. – Noon Show Guest Interview (12:00 Noon 2:21)

Charlotte Mecklenburg Senior Centers provides programs and services to help improve health and wellness and decrease loneliness and isolation. They also provide social, economic and educational opportunities.

5/6/10 Problem Solver Investigation: Salmon (mislabelled) (11:00 p.m. :30)

5/7/10 (6:00 p.m. 2:20)

Mislabeled fish being sent from this seafood distributor. Fish that ended up in grocery store coolers and perhaps on your dinner table. State investigators are asking questions. The Food and Drug Protection Division on a paper trail hunt following a Problem Solver Investigation

5/17/10 Problem Solver Investigation: Bank Card (11:00 p.m. 1:50)

5/18/10 (5:30 p.m. 1:50)

Marisol Rodriguez's fight isn't over an exorbitant amount of money, $455 at least by big bank standards. But it's a lot of money for them." And it's money locked away in a savings account. "They said I'm sorry it will be 90 days holding my 455 dollars." He applied for a secured credit card at 5/3 bank. They filled out the paperwork and put the required 455 dollars..."cash"... in a savings account to insure the card. A few days later the credit card came in the mail. It's when Luis made a simple mistake. "He by accident pressed the wrong pin number to activate the card." WBTV's PSI unit was able to get the Rodriguez family their $455 back, when they could not.

5/24/10 Stretching Your Dollar – Nightmare Vacation (5:00 p.m. 1:55, 7:00 p.m. 1:55)

For $380, a three day two night trip to the Big Easy at the Essence Musical Festival. July 2009: Valeria Walker and her sister Gretta, signed up for the trip with this woman, Tiphani Slone...who ran traveldivas.com. A pile of emails is just a portion of the correspondence Valerie made to Slone. Before long, Slone explained the trip was cancelled and she was working on returning a portion on the money paid. It's been almost a year. Valerie hasn't seen a dime. WBTV tried calling every number we could find for Slone, to no avail. We basically went into the better business bureau and they had a complaint on her with contract issues, we were like, wow if we had just done this in the beginning we would have known.

5/26/10 Light Rail Money Shortage (11:00 p.m. 1:26)

The plan is to take the light rail from uptown to extreme northeast Charlotte where north Tryon hits 485. On the way it would go through UNC Charlotte...where many folks would love to ride it uptown. But can the light rail expansion happen before UNCC students are collecting social security? Right now folks are buying less so CATS is getting less tax money to build the line...which could delay it. So something needs to happen to get this thing done before 2020. Among the things that would help:

- the economy turns around
 - the feds give more money than they've done in the past
 - or some creative way to pay for it is found, like a public private partnership...
- This week the newspaper reported CATS could resort to building the line in segments...stopping the first on one Sugar Creek Road not far from uptown.

6/1/10 Public Housing Grant (7:00 p.m. 2:13)

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development awarding the city the first major installment to tear down Boulevard Homes and replace it with a mixed-income "education village" with a school as its centerpiece. A 150-million dollar community. James Mitchell - chairman of the city council's housing and neighborhood development committee. "It's more than rooftops. It's a holistic approach about providing education, recreation as well as rooftops to those citizens who need quality of housing." The 40-acre site near Billy Graham Parkway on West Boulevard will be razed later this year. In its place-- the Charlotte Housing Authority plans to mix public.. Section 8.. and market-rate housing.. 332 units. Partnering with CMS.. Mecklenburg Park and Rec and CPCC. Creating a community people will want to move into.

6/21/10 Preparing for Primary (6:00 p.m. 1:50)

Polling place volunteers loaded up their cars once again today for voters to make the final choice who will be the on the final ballot in November.

Gresham Barrett and Nikki Haley were on opposite sides of the state today making final campaign stops. Political Science Professor at York Technical College in Rock Hill Rick Whisonant says tomorrow's race may be close.

6/26/10 Medical Records Exposed – On Your Side Investigation (6:00 p.m.

1:08, 10:00 p.m. 1:25, 11:00 p.m. 1:25)

6/27/10 (5:00 a.m. 1:11, 6:00 a.m. 1:11)

6/30/10 (6:00 a.m. 1:25)

WBTV investigated how 25 boxes of medical records ended up in a public recycling center. WBTV's investigation found page after page of social security numbers, medical histories, and even photos of patients, all open where anyone could take them.

WBTV EDITORIALS, 2Q 2010:

"Speak Out" is an expression of opinion from the Editorial Board of WBTV, and is presented by General Manager, Nick Simonette. WBTV's Speak Out Editorials air two-times per week in various Newscasts.

Speak Out: Editorial Responses

Our recent Editorial challenging Dr. Peter Gorman's cavalier attitude on advanced teaching degrees really hit a nerve. Ms. Patrice Conlon writes: As a former CMS teacher with an advanced degree, I was not at all surprised by Mr. Gorman's opinion. CMS is not at all concerned about the education of children, but more about what will cost them less.... Mr. Gorman has his priorities wrong and he won't attract accomplished teachers if he continues on the path he is on. Christianne May agrees: I am currently finishing my last semester of my master's (master's) degree in Education Leadership at UNCC.... Teachers are already unpaid (underpaid), under appreciated, and overworked. To have our advanced degrees tossed out the window as if we received them from opening a box of Cracker Jacks is beyond appalling. A couple of viewers questioned Dr. Gorman's credentials: I'm curious to know if Dr. Gorman could've gotten his position with just a four year degree...of course not! (Mary Register) If advanced degrees do not matter shouldn't we be addressing the superintendent (superintendent) as MISTER Peter Gorman and not as DOCTOR Peter Gorman? (Ken O'Neal) And finally, a challenge to the basis for Dr. Gorman's comments from Vickie Hoyle: Thank you for pointing out that the "study" used by Dr. Gorman was flawed and incomplete in so many ways.... The student achievement he refers to is measured only for classes with EOC tests at the high school level, and most teachers with Master's Degrees don't even teach those classes.... The man is looking for any excuse to release more teachers, even after the hundreds he released last year.

Speak Out: Take Back Our Streets

We live in a war zone. It's not Iraq. Nor Afghanistan. But a war zone, nonetheless. We report on shootings every day. Usually it's bad guys versus bad guys. But when stray bullets hit innocent people, how can we say our streets are anything but war-like? Take this scene: Two people were shot while driving by this club a few weeks ago. Then there is this 3-year-old. A bullet hit him in the leg two months ago in Hidden Valley. The guy the bullet was meant for says he wasn't in a gang. Police disagreed. Or what about 15-year-old Amari Boyd? She was shot when three guys fired a gun near East Meck High School. Afterwards, one fellow student said, "When you're walking down here you could be the next target. You could get shot anytime. Cause a bullet don't have no eyes." Is that what we want? To live in a place where kids feel okay saying, "You could get shot anytime"? This is not just a police problem. Making our community safer is up to police...the D.A...judges...probation officers...lawmakers.... The list goes on. It's a puzzle. A big one. You're one of the pieces. Be aware of what's going on in your neighborhood. Report things you see. Track offenders who commit crimes. Let's do as much as we can to keep the innocent still innocent...and our streets as NON-war-like as possible.

Speak Out: Healthcare Reform vs States Rights

We need healthcare reform. But the way it was just passed is shameful. Our President promised that the process would be out in the open... we all know it wasn't. And, some elected officials voted on the bill without ever reading it. Speaker Nancy Pelosi admitted that publicly. (Nancy Pelosi) "But we have to pass the bill so that you can find out what is in it, away from the fog of controversy."

That is downright irresponsible. And now... now that we're learning more about the legislation... we're starting to see it chips away at our rights as a state. This new law FORCES citizens to purchase insurance or face penalties. Is that constitutional? What will be FORCED to buy next? A certain kind of car? A particular brand of food? If you take this legislation to the next logical step, that notion is not so farfetched. The Federal Government clearly feels because it can regulate commerce, it can regulate healthcare. But some Constitutional experts say this new healthcare law violates the 10th Amendment, which says powers not delegated to the federal government... are reserved to the states.

So far, 13 states have joined in on a suit to challenge the legislation. South Carolina is one of them.

And for that, we applaud Attorney General Henry McMaster. But we have learned that North Carolina Attorney General Roy Cooper has decided NOT to join the law suit. We're disappointed with his decision. The bottom line is that this lawsuit isn't about healthcare - it's about a loss of states' rights - which is a loss for the rights of each person in that state.

Speak Out: Funds From The "Education" Lottery

"When there was such a strong push to get the lottery in NC, it was about education, right? Where is the money going? How much is available? Who is accountable? Could you please enlighten us as to how this money is being spent? Thanks." Well Lois... we agree it can be confusing. We also think putting the word "EDUCATION" into the lottery's name is misleading. Here's why: Only 35-percent of lottery earnings go to educational purposes. Out of that 35-percent, half must go to classroom reduction. 40-percent must go to school construction. The remaining 10-percent goes to college scholarships. So the "EDUCATION" lottery... is not set up so the money goes to all areas of EDUCATION. It's very specific. In 2007... the most recently confirmed figure we have... 375-million dollars was raised for "EDUCATION" from the lottery. But it had to be used in the categories we already said... for classroom reduction, school construction and scholarships. Maybe it's time to reallocate how the "EDUCATION" lottery uses its funds. Think about it... if 375-million was divided by 100 counties... that's an extra 3-point-75 million each county school district could use how it sees fit.

Speak Out: Charlotte Sports "Atta Boys"

Three major "Atta Boys" this week - We begin with what, honestly, wasn't a strong showing in the NBA playoffs. A clean sweep was not what anyone wanted. But Charlotte Bobcats - do not hang your head in shame. You made the playoffs. You made us proud. You brought in tourism and even more recognition to our city and your team. This weekend, Charlotte is home to one of the premier golf tournaments on the PGA Tour - the Quail Hollow Championship. The top players in the world are shining the spotlight on our city, and we offer our "Congratulations" to all of the leaders and volunteers who've help make this possible. Now our focus turns to the next big attraction...this one all brand new! It'll bring in people - and hopefully lots of them - week after week. We welcome the NASCAR Hall of Fame, opening Tuesday, May 11th. NASCAR tourists are dedicated fans. They bring money and passion. That revenue and excitement will benefit Charlotte. Congrats, NASCAR, for choosing the Charlotte area as even more of a home base. While here, fans and locals alike might want to stop by any of our other great new attractions...The Harvey Gantt Center, Knight Theatre, or the Bechtler Museum of Modern Art. For whatever challenges we may face as a city, we've got to admit - Charlotte, North Carolina, is a pretty great place to live.

Speak Out: Healthcare Reform Responses

A few weeks ago we aired an editorial on Healthcare Reform and, boy, did it get a lot of response from our viewers. One from Gina Robbins, regarding our presentation on Speak Out, said "How about instead of an editorial board, you get the opinions from your viewers?" Well Gina, we actually get opinions from our viewers quite often. Here are a few, starting with yours. She writes: "The Healthcare Reform bill may have its flaws according to the GOP, but is my life of any less value than those who already enjoy the privilege of health insurance? I think not..." BH Pressley writes: "Thank you for speaking out about our NC Attorney General not joining surrounding states opposing Health Care Reform. I am personally disgusted that our state will not join others in trying to help the citizens of NC." Mark Gentry speaks out: "I was so thrilled and proud the other night when I was watching the late night news and Nick Simonette did the 'Speak Out' piece on the healthcare bill and states' rights. Exercising our states' rights is our only hope to resist a tyrannical federal government..." Dan Crawford writes: "I'll agree that the mandate is the worst part of this law. But on constitutional grounds, there's nothing wrong with the law. Let's call the States' Attorneys General lawsuit what it is, political theater." Chris Taylor says: "I totally disagree with you. The government requires by law that you have insurance if you own a car. Why? Because without such a law, insurance premiums would sky rocket. Here's hoping you will present opposing sides like mine." Well, we did present both sides from you, the viewer. Thank you for your opinions, please keep them coming...and we will do so as well.

Speak Out: Relay For Life

"Celebrate. Remember. Fight back." That's the mission of Relay For Life -- the American Cancer Society's signature event nationwide. Many counties and cities in our 22-county viewing area participate. You might see the public service spots running on WBTV right now -- Relay for Life events are going on throughout May and early-June. If you've never been, it's an overnight fundraiser.

People walk together for hours and hours, all to raise money to beat one of the nastiest diseases around. I say "nastiest" because so many people are affected. Some statistics show one in three people are diagnosed with cancer. This year marks the beginning of 25 years of Relay For Life.

The love for life shines brightly at these relays. You can see it in the faces of people who attend.

That's why we're taking this minute in SpeakOut to ask you all to think about the mission statement of Relay for Life. "Celebrate. Remember. Fight back." As its website says: "Celebrate" the lives of those who have battled cancer..."Remember" loved ones lost to the disease...and "Fight back" against a disease that takes too much. See if there's a Relay for Life near you. Go to Relay For Life dot org.

That information is also posted on our webpage, WBTV dot com, under Speak Out

Speak Out: Speak Up - Early and Often

A few weeks ago, parents and the community spoke out and criticized Charlotte-Mecklenburg School Superintendent Peter Gorman and school board members about brutal budget cuts. We applaud them for letting their voices be heard, But at the same time we wonder: "Was it a day late and a dollar short?" The budget is pretty much set. The day AFTER the public bashed the board about possibly laying off nearly 600 teachers, board member Trent Merchant made these controversial remarks:

"You can't sit on your butt 364 days of the year, show up at a board meeting - rant and rave - and expect to get anything done. You have to be a partner." We agree with Merchant. Why? Because when CMS' budget drama started a few months ago, the community was sleeping at the wheel.

At budget meeting after budget meeting, there was hardly any public outcry. People didn't even show up in huge numbers when the board voted to give the superintendent the authority to start laying off teachers. THAT is when the criticism should have been seen and heard. Folks, let your voice be heard early and often. The school district needs you. CMS says next year's budget will be harsh.

Already the board is considering closing about a dozen schools and possibly laying off more teachers.

Are you going to do anything about that? Start speaking up NOW so you and your children won't be paying for it LATER.

Speak Out: Memorial Day 2010

"No greater love hath any man but that he lay down his life for his fellow man." (John 15:13) Throughout our nation's history, we have had periods of military conflict. Our intentions have been noble - from protecting our own shores to defending the oppressed and embattled in other lands.

And generally, we have prevailed. Our concept of "right" has won out over the forces of evil. But the sad truth is that in war, young men and young women die...thousands of them...many still teenagers. Those that fight and perish are not just names or numbers. They're our children...our husbands and wives...our brothers and sisters...our friends. These brave men and women voluntarily sign up to serve their country...to protect the lives and liberties not only of their fellow Americans, but the citizens of foreign nations, as well. They know that when they hit the jungles of Vietnam, the sands of Iraq, the mountains of Afghanistan, they may never return home. And yet, they go...and suffer...and too often die...with courage, valor, and selfless determination. American troops have fought for the ideals they believe in since the Revolutionary War, and no doubt will for centuries to come. They lay down their lives so that we may live free. On Memorial Day 2010, we remember and salute those who have fallen.

Speak Out: Drop In, Not Drop-out!

As you watch students get their high school diplomas this month, I've got some numbers for you to think about: 19,000...2,000...and 2014. Last year more than 19 thousand students in North Carolina gave up. 19 thousand dropped out of school. For some perspective, 19 thousand is almost the student population at U-N-C-Charlotte. Closer to home in C-M-S, nearly 2,000 students quit high school last year. That's about the size of East Meck High. How sad....Something has to be done.

And we don't think this is the sole responsibility of parents. Don't get us wrong -- We agree parents play a huge role. But these numbers are so scary, we can't wait until parents get it together.

We think the community has to help rescue our future. YOU can volunteer in your neighborhood school. Help tutor. Look into what students in your community need to complete their high school education. Superintendent Peter Gorman says by the year 2014 - he wants to reduce the drop-out rate. His plan is for principals to closely monitor students on the verge of slipping away. That sounds good, but shouldn't that have been done already? Guess that's another editorial. For now, we'll just say we understand there is no quick fix to this epidemic, but we do believe all of us are part of the solution.

Speak Out: A Bittersweet Graduation

This month, thousands of students in North and South Carolina are experiencing a rite of passage that they will never forget. They are graduating from High School and preparing for the next phase of their lives. But this year's graduation is bitter-sweet. Hundreds of teachers are losing their jobs due to budget cuts. Some of those teachers are low-performers and really don't belong in the classroom.

But many great teachers are also being cut, and that's such a shame. To them we would like to make this plea...Please don't give up on teaching. If you are truly passionate about being an educator...

If teaching is NOT just a job to you, but a way to change lives...Please don't turn your back on this important calling. Our children desperately need you. Hopefully budgets will soon improve...other teaching positions will become available and you will be able to return to the classroom where you belong. And to you graduates - if a teacher has made a real difference in your life - be sure to let him or her know. Your encouragement could mean the world to them during these difficult days.

Speak Out: NASCAR Hall of Fame

The checkered flag has been waved! The NASCAR Hall of Fame has crossed the finish line! After 3 years of waiting, the Hall is now open. Exhibits...memorabilia...interactive games... It's a packed place. One of the most popular features so far is this track. It's built at the same angle as real ones. Visitors from all over get to stand on those famous curves from Indy to Talladega. With the ever-changing exhibits, organizers have publicly stated they expect repeat fans. That's something we like to hear. It's nice to have the tourist attraction -- but the way to make real money is by having people visit more than once. There does seem to be some creativity with getting people in the door. For the Sprint Cup Race in late May...buses at the Speedway shuttled fans to the Hall of Fame. At three-dollars-and-fifty-cents a ticket, it got lots of extra bodies through the turnstiles. The Hall of Fame received 10-thousand visitors in its opening week. 2-thousand walked in days later for the induction of the first class. We understand these are special events, and these few weeks have been a unique time for NASCAR in Charlotte. But we're pleased to see successful days so far. We know it's early on, but NASCAR Hall of Fame, congratulations on a good beginning. We hope you continue to live up to the hype and the public dollars we've invested.

Speak Out: Do The Right Thing

Here's a question for you: Is our indifference growing as our skyline gets bigger? We fear it is. We fear too many people are turning a blind eye. No case illustrates this more than the light rail attack this Spring. Michael, a banker, was commuting to work. He says three guys were getting rowdy, loud and disruptive on the Lynx. Michael asked them to tone it down. These scars show what happened next. The guys jumped him. Three-on-one. Security was questioned -- CATS defended its system. But upon reflection, our real question isn't about "how many guards"...it's how many people on board watched this happen, and didn't step in to help. Surveillance tape shows the reality.

Other riders -- basically -- ignore the fight and walk off the train. Come on! Charlotte isn't like that!

Or...are we? Are we becoming so big-city that we'll ignore neighbors in need of help? The Lynx situation is eerily similar to this one out of New York. A man gets stabbed after stopping to help a woman...no one stops to help the man. No one. Video shows people walking by. Then there's this example in Connecticut...a person hit by a car lays there, with no one jumping in to help. So here's our reminder: Do the right thing. Have belief in your surroundings. We appreciate Charlotte's growth...but want to remain respectable. Plus, the next time the person needing help could be you.

Speak Out: 2-Year Anniversary

Monday marks the two-year anniversary of our SpeakOut Editorials here on WBTV. This continues a long-standing commitment to social commentary which began on our station back in the 1950s.

Over the course of these two years, we've written some 165 editorials, covering a wide range of topics. Chief among these, as you might expect, has been the school system -- its leaders, teachers, students, and parents. We've addressed the United Way, gangs on our streets, the completion of I-485, taxes, healthcare, politics, and government spending. But we've also pointed out the many great things about living in our area. We've asked you to consider supporting local charities and encouraged you to "keep the faith" during our rough economic times. And, we've reflected on various holidays and what they mean to our nation. But some of our favorite SpeakOuts are those where you've responded with YOUR opinions to OUR opinions. You have a passion and intelligence which serves our community well. This is just a small listing of the various topics we've covered. What do they have in common? Well, if anything, we think it's that our city, our state, our nation would be a lot better served if we all just used a little common sense.

Speak Out: Report Card

The year 2010 is half way over. And it's time for a report card for some of our local leaders. First, is CMS Superintendent Peter Gorman. We are happy to report test scores are up. But the achievement gap is still too wide. And the dropout rate concerns us. Gorman has promised to address those issues. So right now, we give him a "B." We think Gorman needs improvement when it comes to working with the community. Recent decisions the superintendent has made have bothered and divided some parents and voters. We believe Gorman needs to fix that. Next up is Charlotte Police Chief Rodney Monroe. Overall crime is down...which is a good thing. But we are concerned about the city's murder rate. To date it has increased by nearly 80 percent. We hope Monroe is working on a plan to change that. So for now, we also give him a "B." At the same time, we must give him an "Incomplete." He still hasn't received that bachelor's degree he said he would get. Next in line: Governor Beverly Perdue. She promised more jobs, more visits to the Queen city, and to get I-485 complete. More jobs have come, she has visited the Queen city more often, and work on 485 will start this year...we hope. Right now, Perdue also gets a "B." This is just our assessment.

We hope you are keeping tabs on your local leaders and continue to speak out when you see them failing at their duties, and most importantly, not keeping their word.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

04/03/10 PREEMPTION

04/10/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "My Mother's Murder" - On the morning of June 5, 2005, Noura Jackson, a teenager, called the police to report that she had discovered the body of her mother, Jennifer Jackson, in their Memphis, Tennessee home. Jennifer, a 39-year-old divorced single parent, was a successful bond trader, who provided Noura with a generous lifestyle. Due to the brutality of her murder, police initially considered a possible link between Jennifer's death and the unsolved shooting death of her estranged husband, Nazmi Hassanich, seventeen months prior; they also focused on Jennifer's ex-boyfriend, Mark Irvin, a minister, who had an alibi. Although there was a lack of physical evidence at the crime scene, Noura's conflicting accounts of her activities in the hours before she called 911, a gap in her cell phone usage, and an early morning trip to Walgreen's to purchase first aid supplies for a cut on her hand, caused police to focus on her as a suspect. While none of the DNA at the crime scene matched Noura's, she was eventually charged with her mother's murder. Four years later, at her trial, prosecutors alleged that the seemingly good relationship between mother and daughter was strained due to Jennifer's criticism of Noura's hard-partying lifestyle and charged that this was the motive for the crime. The jury found Noura guilty of second-degree murder -- she still maintains her innocence. Onscreen graphics: Noura Jackson was sentenced to 20 years in prison. She will be 39 years old when released -- the same age her mother was when she was murdered. Interviewed: Noura Jackson; family friends Susan Tobey, Renea McMillan, Ansley Larsson, Dana Frederick; Sergeant Tim Heildorfer with the Memphis Police Department; Memphis detectives Lieutenant Mark Miller and Sergeant W.D. Merritt; Sergeant Connie Justice, the first officer to interview Noura; Valerie Corder, Memphis Defense Attorney; Prosecutor Amy Weirich. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Jay Young)

- 04/24/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "An Invisible Enemy" (9:00-10:00p) - a follow-up to "An Invisible Enemy" (OAD: 12/08/07). In January 2007, Cynthia Sommer was convicted of murdering her Marine Sgt. husband Todd in February 2002 with a lethal dose of arsenic. But ten months after her conviction, she was granted a new trial because of questions about the validity of the lab tests that found arsenic in some of Todd Sommer's tissue samples but not in others. His tissue samples were now sent to another lab to be tested for arsenic -- and none was found. Because of this, the prosecution concluded that there was a reasonable doubt; murder charges against Cynthia Sommer were dropped, and the case was dismissed. However, Todd Sommer's death is still officially listed as a homicide, and the court left open the possibility that Cynthia Sommer could be charged again. Interviewed are: Cynthia Sommer; Jan Lippert, Cynthia's mother; Allen Bloom, Cynthia Sommer's new defense attorney; Mark Ridley, Naval Criminal Investigative Service special agent; Rob Terwilliger, a second NCIS special agent; Bonnie Dumanis, San Diego District Attorney; Dr. Lee Cantrell, toxicologist; Dr. Glenn Wagner, medical examiner; Eva Stoner, military police officer; Al Poklis, arsenic expert. Onscreen graphic update for this 04/24/10 rebroadcast: Cynthia Sommer filed a $20 million lawsuit against the federal government, NCIS agents and the San Diego district attorney, among others, alleging that her civil rights were violated. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Marcelena Spencer, Cayane Keshishyan) (OAD: 02/07/09; 1st Rebroadcast: 06/27/09, which included a brief update in the form of an onscreen text graphic at the conclusion.)
- 04/24/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Hannibal Unmasked" (10:00 - 11:00p) - A report on the separate disappearances in 2003 of three young women in the Denver, Colorado area, and the investigations which not only eventually discovered the one individual who had known all three women, but led to his conviction as the killer of the three. His victims included 19-year-old Kaysi McLeod, a recovering drug user, who left home in August 2003 after a confrontation with her mother, Lori. When Kaysi didn't show up for work two days later, and police wouldn't allow a missing persons report to be filed (Kaysi was over eighteen and there was no evidence of foul play), Lori turned to her boyfriend and eventual husband, Scott Kimball, who claimed to work for the FBI. Kaysi never was found. Seven months before Kaysi disappeared, Howard Emry's 24-year-old daughter, LeAnn, had also vanished. LeAnn had been in a relationship with an inmate named Steven Holley. Jennifer Marcum, too, vanished shortly after visiting her prison boyfriend, Steve Emis. Family members of both women also went to authorities, but leads in the investigation went nowhere. Then an FBI agent contacted Jennifer's family and told them that Jennifer had been killed by her boyfriend's drug associates. This information came from the agent's informant, Hannibal, a.k.a. Scott Kimball. In the fall of 2006, Rob McLeod, Kaysi's father, learned of Jennifer Marcum's disappearance through a newspaper article. Both Rob McLeod and Bob Marcum learned of a connection to Scott Kimball. Together, both fathers went to the FBI and revealed their suspicions. After a lengthy investigation, it was determined that Kimball was responsible for the deaths of the three women and that of his uncle, Terry Kimball, who had visited Kimball and mysteriously disappeared. In 2008, a skull was recovered by the FBI from a national forest, where it had been held for months after its discovery by a hunter during the winter. DNA analysis identified it as the skull of Kaysi McLeod. With Kimball sentenced to 48 years for his recent non-violent crimes, prosecutors wanted him to be convicted for his murders, so a deal was offered -- no charges of first-degree murder -- if he would lead authorities to the remaining bodies of his victims. The bodies of LeAnn Emry and his Uncle Terry were recovered; Jennifer Marcum's body has never been found. In October 2009, Kimball pleaded guilty to all of the murders and was sentenced to seventy years. Interviewed: Rob and Lori McLeod, Kaysi's parents; Kaysi's best friend Tabetta Morton; Howard Emry, LeAnn's father; Brent Pace, a Utah investigator and tracker; Lafayette, Colorado Detective Gary Thatcher; Bob Marcum and Jennifer Willis, Jennifer Marcum's parents; FBI Special Agent Jonathan Grusing; Boulder County Prosecutor Amy Okubo; lead Prosecutor Katharina Booth; Scott Kimball; and Jim Davis, now in charge of the FBI's Denver office. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

04/18/10 "Time to Say Goodbye" - a report on the growth of the hospice movement and their work in helping patients to come to terms with certain types of "end of life" issues -- the ethereal considerations, such as what it means to die a "good" death by being at peace with yourself, your family, friends, and whatever spiritual path one chooses to follow. This special focuses on three patients and the care provided by Tidewell Hospice of Sarasota, Florida. 1) John Errett is a 79-year-old retired business executive, who lives with his wife, Kitty Walsh, in Tarpon Springs. John has lung cancer and it is his desire to die at home. 2) Steven Smith was a 42-year-old bookbinder who was diagnosed with advanced colon cancer. Married to Sylvia, a nurse, he was receiving care at a Tidewell Hospice House in Venice, Florida. Steven died a week after being visited by the staff affiliated with this broadcast. 3) Montine Gilmore is an 83-year-old grandmother, born and raised in rural Georgia, who suffers from several potentially fatal ailments. A firm believer in the afterlife, she is in no hurry to leave this one. Also featured are comments from Tidewell Hospice personnel, including: Dr. John Leedy, Chief Medical Officer; Reverend Mike Neal, Chaplain; Case Managers Lynn Cosgrove, RN and Lisa Camp, RN; Dr. Jocile Angsten, Associate Medical Director; Jane Welsh, Expressive Arts Facilitator; Charlie Warne, Massage Therapist; and Dr. Carmel Quigley, Associate Medical Director. Others interviewed include: social workers Kristen Machanska and Robert Rees; Reverend Robert Green, Pastor, Oneco United Methodist Church; and Kay Gilmore, Montine Gilmore's daughter-in-law. (Narrator & Producer: Ted Holmes. Associate Producer: Joshua Olesker. Executive Producer & Director: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; United States Conference of Catholic Bishops; The Islamic Society of North America; Union for Reform Judaism; New York Board of Rabbis.)

- 05/01/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Killer Defense" - a report on the 2007 murder of Jennifer Turner, married but separated from North Carolina dentist, Dr. Kirk Turner, due to his infidelities with the family banker, Tondja Colvin. Kirk and Jennifer still maintained a lucrative horse farm, but Jennifer had filed for divorce and also brought an alienation of affection suit against Tondja. Their separation also divided the family: daughter Wendy sided with her mother and son Richie chose to live with his father. Jennifer refused Kirk's requests to drop the lawsuit against Tondja and the separation soon became acrimonious. Jennifer feared for her life. On the night of September 12th, Greg Smithson, a family friend who had also done work at the horse farm, asked Jennifer if he could pick up some equipment and bring Kirk along to help. Jennifer agreed. All three of them went to a shed on the property to load equipment. When the conversation between Jennifer and Kirk became personal, Greg excused himself. Soon after, Greg heard screams from the shed. He found Kirk stabbed in the leg by a seven-foot-long decorative spear and Jennifer motionless on the floor. 911 instructed Greg to perform CPR on Jennifer, but she died, having been nearly decapitated. Prosecutors believed that Kirk intended to kill Jennifer and staged the spear attack. Kirk claimed that Jennifer became enraged when he presented an affidavit from her ex-husband, claiming that her first marriage nearly twenty-five years earlier had failed because of her obsessive love of horses and alleging that she had been unfaithful -- and used his pocket knife to defend himself only after she attacked. He was put on trial for first degree murder, with Smithson's testimony playing a key role for both sides. Prosecutors rebuked his testimony and doubted that he had performed CPR on Jennifer. After testimony from a forensic scientist and Kirk himself, the jury found Kirk Turner not guilty by reason of self defense. Wendy still maintains her father's guilt. Onscreen text graphic: Jennifer's sister filed a wrongful death lawsuit against Kirk Turner, which was settled out of court. Wendy and Richie are the beneficiaries. Kirk Turner and Tondja Colvin are still together. Interviewed: Wendy and Richie Turner, children of Jennifer and Kirk; Susan Doran, Linda Ernst, Anne Gould, and Tara Whittaker, Jennifer's friends; Greg Smithson, friend of Jennifer and Kirk; Joe Cheshire and Brad Bannon, Kirk's attorneys; Greg Brown, prosecutor; Rob Taylor, prosecutor; Johnny Marks, lead investigator for the prosecution; and unidentified members of the jury. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Paul LaRosa, Chuck Stevenson, Susan Mallie)
- 05/08/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Shelley's Last Breath" - an investigation into the 1999 scuba diving death of Shelley Tyre while on vacation on the Caribbean isle of Tortola. Police questioned her husband and dive partner David Swain about every detail of the dive; autopsy results were inconclusive. Shelley, a school principal who, in the early 1990s, had met and married David Swain, a divorced father of two, who ran a dive shop, was an adventurous woman who couldn't care less about money. Her parents insisted on a pre-nuptial agreement and David Swain agreed he would receive no money if they divorced. With her death, he collected more than $600,000 from her estate. What her parents could not understand was Swain's lack of emotion regarding Shelley's death. He explained that he didn't know had happened to Shelley during the dive. Although divers are supposed to swim in pairs, she was diving alone -- he had gone elsewhere in the water. One year after her death, her parents hired an attorney and sent him and his team of experts to Tortola to investigate. After several months, they uncovered evidence which they believed proved David Swain was lying. 48 HOURS hired an underwater forensic expert to examine the evidence; he also concluded that it was much more than a diving accident. Her parents believed that Shelley's decision to change jobs and take a substantial pay cut may have been the motive for murder. In 2006, they sued David Swain in civil court for wrongful death and won. Armed with this, the Tyres persuaded the authorities in Tortola to re-open the case: island prosecutors charged Swain with the murder of his wife. Ten years after Shelley's death and after two years in a Tortola prison, the trial began. Certain information about David Swain became public during the trial -- his father had been convicted of sexual abuse and sent to prison. His mother was bludgeoned to death by his brother, Richard. This information, along with testimony from his children and ex-wife was used to explain his behavior. In the end, David Swain was found guilty of murder and sentenced to life in prison. Onscreen graphics: David Swain plans to appeal on the grounds that defense experts were not allowed to testify. He is eligible for parole in 2032, when he will be 76 years old. Interviewed: David Swain; Jen Bloom and Jeremy Swain, David's children; Richard and Lisa Tyre, Shelley's parents; Don Badger, Shelley's co-worker; John Langella, David's friend and fellow scuba instructor; Sandy Wheeler, David's ex-wife; Jeff Morgan, San Bernardino, California Sheriff's Department; Keith Royle, dive boat captain; Bill Oliver, scuba gear designer; Neil Tassel and Tim Bradl, David's defense attorneys; Jim Erickson, former Minneapolis assistant district attorney; Hayden St. Clair Douglas, local counsel working with David's defense team. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 05/15/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Betting Her Life" - a followup to "Right or Wrong" (OAD: 04/24/04, updated 01/01/08) - the story of Susan Wright, a 27-year-old stay-at-home mother from Houston, Texas who stabbed her husband, Jeff, 193 times. She claims she was a victim of domestic abuse and that on January 13, 2003, her husband attacked her with a knife and she fought back in self-defense. Prosecutors charged that she was a cold blooded killer who lured her husband to bed with the promise of sex, tied him up and then brutally murdered him. A jury found Susan Wright guilty of murder and sentenced her to 25 years in prison. Six years have passed and now, attorney Brian Wice has taken on her case, believing Susan Wright deserves a new sentencing hearing, because, he argues, prosecutor Kelly Siegler chose to inflame rather than inform the jury, and that Wright's original lawyers should have called more witnesses, including experts on battered women. He also has a new witness - Misty McMichael, ex-wife of former NFL star Steve McMichael, and who herself, was once engaged to Jeff Wright. Though she and Susan have never met, her story is very similar; both were topless dancers, she says she was abused by Jeff Wright, but she filed a police report and left him. Misty McMichael testifies and is a difficult witness on the stand but Judge Wallace orders a new sentencing hearing. This is not to determine Susan's guilt, but to see if she might be given a sentence other than the 25 years she is now serving. The hearing is expected to be held in the fall of 2010. Onscreen graphic: Susan Wright's children, Bradley and Kaily, are now 11 and 8. They were adopted by Jeff's brother. Her new sentencing hearing is expected in the fall. Interviewed: Susan Wright; Cindy Stewart, Susan's sister; Ron Wright, Jeff's father; Prosecutor Kelly Siegler; medical examiner Dwayne Wolf; Attorney Brian Wice; Judge Jim Wallace; Dr. Jerome Brown, an expert on battered women; Misty McMichael. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Clare Friedland, Jenna Jackson, Chuck Stevenson)
- 05/22/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Deep Secret" (9:00-10:00p) - On June 21, 1977, eighteen-year-old Jeffrey Klee of Coral Springs, Florida, went out drinking with his best friend, David Cusanelli -- and never returned home. When police questioned Cusanelli, he told them that Jeff had dropped him off and then had headed home himself that night. Eventually investigators assumed that Jeff had run away. Thirty years passed. Then, in 2008, Klee's van was discovered in a Coral Springs canal which was being dredged for stolen vehicles. It contained Klee's skeletal remains and some personal possessions. Just two weeks prior to this discovery, Danna Holmes, a Coral Springs resident, told police that, in the year 2000, an inebriated man in a Coral Springs bar told her that he had accidentally killed his best friend. When she was shown a photo lineup to identify that man, she picked out David Cusanelli. Police interrogation of Cusanelli and his brother Carl eventually elicited the admission that David Cusanelli had gotten into a fight with Klee over Ginny Healy Spence, and that Klee had sustained an accidental injury to his head and died -- after which the Cusanellis pushed the van, containing Klee's body, into the canal. Because there is no evidence to suggest homicide, no charges were made against the Cusanellis. Also, according to 1977 Florida law, there was then a three year statute of limitations for manslaughter charges. The Klees cannot even sue in civil court for wrongful death -- the statute of limitations has also run out on that. The Florida legislature recently defeated a proposal to eliminate the statute of limitations in wrongful death cases. Onscreen graphic update: Last week Florida enacted the Jeffrey Klee Memorial Act, a law eliminating the statute of limitations for wrongful death claims. The Klee family cannot sue anyone for wrongful death because the new law is not retroactive. Includes interviews with: Ginny Healy Spence, Jeff Klee's girlfriend; Bob Vernon, retired Coral Springs police detective; Flossie Klee, mother of Jeff Klee; Jeff's sisters Laurel Klee (Steele), Cyndy Klee, and DeeDee Klee; Danna Holmes, Coral Springs resident; Dave Weissman, Coral Springs detective; Mitch Polay, lawyer for the Cusanelli brothers; Shari Tate Jenkins, Florida State Assistant Attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

05/22/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "One of Their Own" (10:00-11:00p) - a report about how and why decorated female Los Angeles Police Detective Stephanie Lazarus was charged with the 1986 murder of Sherri Mae Rasmussen. The victim, newly married to John Ruetten, Lazarus' ex-boyfriend, was attacked, beaten and shot to death in her Los Angeles home. Police pursued a robbery motive, even though the only things missing were her car and her marriage certificate. For more than two decades, her father, Nels Rasmussen, has been on a frustrating quest to find out the truth about his daughter's murder. Believing that Sherri's husband, John Ruetten, was not involved, he says he has tried many times to get the police to focus on John's ex-girlfriend Stephanie Lazarus. Sherri had told her family that Stephanie was still obsessed with John and believed that Sherri had stolen John away from her. Recently, the LAPD cold case squad quietly re-opened the case. A piece of evidence -- a saliva sample taken from a bite mark on Sherri's arm -- was sent to a DNA lab. The results indicated that it belonged to a woman, and led police to suspect one of their own: Stephanie Lazarus. Finally Nels Rasmussen felt that police were listening to him. Detectives trailed Stephanie Lazarus to obtain a DNA sample and the results were stunning: the DNA from Sherri's bite mark and that of Stephanie Lazarus matched. In a covert operation, a team planned her arrest and in June 2009, Lazarus was charged with first-degree murder. Her trial is expected to begin shortly. Onscreen text graphic: If convicted, Stephanie Lazarus could face life in prison. A judge ruled out the death penalty. Interviewed: Andrew Blankstein and Joel Rubin; Sherri's sister Teresa; Nels and Loretta Rasmussen, Sherri's parents; Jayne Goldberg, Peggy Crabtree, Sherri's friends; Mark Overland, Lazarus' attorney; John Taylor, the Rasmussen's attorney; Alan Tarsky, Sherri's neighbor; Burt Luper, a retired LAPD detective who is now on Lazarus' defense team; Steven Lazarus, Stephanie's brother. (C: Maurcen Maher - P: Ira Sutow, Taigi Smith, Greg Fisher, Avi Cohen)

05/29/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Blood and Money On Horseshoe Bay" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the November 2005 murder of Charlie White, a larger-than-life Texas millionaire who lived a lavish lifestyle in Horseshoe Bay, Texas. When police were called to White's lakeside mansion, they found his body, which had been brutally beaten, with an extension cord wrapped around his neck several times. By first impression, White was a very likeable person, but as police investigated his murder, a darker image of White emerged -- one of a cruel man with a dangerous mean streak sharpened by arrogance, alcohol, and women. With an unbridled passion for the fairer sex, White bedded and rated the sexual prowess of over a thousand women, including strippers, prostitutes, and even the girlfriends of his own son Darin, who Charlie used to pick up women to fulfill his needs. As the murder investigation unfolded, police focused on the troubled relationship between father and son and soon settled on Darin as the main suspect. When Darin voluntarily came in for questioning, he admitted to being with Charlie the night he died. Darin claimed that after a trip to Wal-Mart, they returned home, where he and his father got into an argument that turned dangerously violent -- Darin believed that his father was going to kill him. After Darin beat and choked his father, he went upstairs to bed and the next morning, drove to his mother's house in New Mexico. But the Texas Rangers didn't buy Darin's story and found no evidence to show that 73-year-old Charlie put up a fight at all. Arrested for his father's murder, prosecutors maintained that it was a case of premeditated murder. But Darin's attorney, Eddie Shell, maintained that it was a misdemeanor murder and a crime of sudden passion, which carries a much lighter sentence. Shell believed that Darin exploded and killed his father in a fit of rage -- one that was brought on by years of torment and physical abuse. In the end, the jury sentenced Darin White to twenty years confinement in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Institutional Division for the murder of his father, Charlie White. Darin will be eligible for parole in ten years. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Jay Young, Jenna Jackson) (OAD: 11/01/08)

05/29/10 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Black Wave" (10:00-11:00p) - In June 2005, John and Jean Silverwood of San Diego, California, along with their four children, were sailing around the world in their 55-foot catamaran when they struck a hidden reef. A massive wave then forced the 2,500 pound mast to fall on John Silverwood, pinning him to the deck and cutting right through his leg. Through the resourcefulness of his son, Ben, and his wife, Jean, John's blood loss was stopped, and the family was moved to a coral ledge about a hundred feet away from the boat. The signal from their emergency beacon, held by son Jack, enabled the Coast Guard Station in Alameda, California, to pinpoint their location - approximately 350 nautical miles west of Tahiti Pepecte. They were finally rescued and John was transported to the hospital in Tahiti. Although his leg had to be amputated, John's life was saved. Includes individual narrations by Jean and John Silverwood and their children: Ben, Amelia, Camille and Jack; Eric Delli Gatti of Coast Guard Search and Rescue. - 1) Topics include: percentage of how much oil continues to escape since BP placed a container on top of the well / factors behind the varying estimates of twelve to nineteen or twelve to twenty-five thousand barrels of oil a day leaking into the Gulf of Mexico / assurance that the federal government has not restricted what Admiral Allen may reveal to the press / need for BP to improve processing financial claims for those affected by the spill / essential to employ more skimmers in order to get the smaller patches of oil before they come ashore / role of the U.S. military in cleaning up the spill / oil remediation and long-term environmental impacts will continue into the fall of 2010
- 2) Topics include: huge economic impact felt by those along Florida's Gulf Coast / call for the U.S. military to play a larger role in cleaning up the spill / frustration over conflicting information relayed to Senator Nelson by those in charge of the clean up / no plan to close Florida's beaches
- 3) Topics include: significance of the accuracy of the initial figures estimating the amount of oil leaking into the Gulf of Mexico, as BP will pay a fine based upon those numbers; foreign and domestic problems facing the Obama Administration; recently unearthed documents implying that Supreme Court nominee Elena Kagan may be more liberal than originally portrayed / criticism against the Obama Administration for how they are handling this revelation / possible impact the Supreme Court nomination process could have on the November midterm elections; need for the Obama Administration to make the oil spill a central part of the Obama presidency
- 06/13/10 Guests: Admiral Thad Allen, Commandant of the United States Coast Guard (1); Governor Haley Barbour (R-MS) (2); Governor Bob Riley (R-AL) (3); Governor Charlie Crist (I-FL) (4)
- 1) Topics include: federal government's plan to ask BP to set aside funds in an escrow account and for an independent third party to oversee the claims process / recent data suggesting that the actual flow rate is closer to forty thousand barrels / oil remediation and long-term environmental impacts will continue into the fall of 2010, even with the changed flow rates / President Obama's Wednesday meeting with BP executives / reflections on the current state of the oil spill
- 2) Topics include: desire for a claim system beneficial to the claimants / President Obama's upcoming trip to the Gulf Coast / negative effect that the current moratorium on offshore drilling will have on the economy / criticism of the constant media coverage and its negative effect on Mississippi's economy
- 3) Topics include: condition of Alabama's beaches / call for an improved unified command in dealing with the crisis / concern over the fact that most Alabama residents consider filing a legitimate claim a "waste of time" / lack of enough protective boom to protect Alabama's coast
- 4) Topics include: concern over the safety of Florida's beaches / appreciation for President Obama's upcoming visit to the Gulf Coast / call for more skimmers for off the coast of Florida / need for the United States to invest in alternative energies / approval for the moratorium on offshore drilling / support for the creation of an escrow account to fund claims / call for tourists to continue visiting Florida / no plan to close Florida's beaches
- 06/20/10 Guests: Senator Barbara Boxer (D-CA), Chairwoman, Environment and Public Works Committee; Representative Joseph Cao (R-LA); Senator Bill Nelson (D-FL); Senator Richard Shelby (R-AL)
- Topics include: reaction to the news that BP CEO Tony Hayward attended a yacht race, as the oil spill continues in the Gulf of Mexico / letter to President Obama from Senators Nelson and Boxer, suggesting a long-term recovery program and requesting that the Navy, instead of the Coast Guard, act as the overall coordinator for the program / differing viewpoints regarding the current moratorium on drilling for oil in the Gulf of Mexico / reaction to Texas Republican Congressman Joe Barton's apology to BP for being subjected to a "shakedown" by the U.S. government / suggestion from research scientists that there may be more than one underwater oil plume, contradicting information provided by BP / support for lifting the liability cap on payments from the oil companies for future oil spills

1) Senate confirmation hearing for Supreme Court Justice nominee Elena Kagan: Republicans' questions about her qualifications / the possibility of a filibuster / Supreme Court nominees who were not judges / Senator Leahy's voting record on past Republican nominees / his reluctance to filibuster a Supreme Court nominee / Senator Sessions' views on the use of a filibuster / the timely delivery to the Judiciary Committee of documents pertinent to the nominee / types of requested documents that have been withheld

2) Senate confirmation hearing for General David Petraeus as the top U.S. Commander in Afghanistan: the necessity of the decision by President Obama to replace General McChrystal / military officers who complain about civilian leadership, but do so privately and off the record / the Pentagon's doubt of the White House commitment to Afghanistan, and the White House's uneasiness about possible continual requests by the military for more troops / President Obama's intention to start troop withdrawals in July 2011 / the strategic necessity of protecting the Afghan civilian population / the possibility that circumstances in Afghanistan might delay the withdrawal of troops according to the initially announced schedule

60 MINUTES

06/06/10 "The Swindler" - an interview with convicted Ponzi schemer and former attorney Marc Dreier, who discusses how he scammed $400 million dollars from his investors. He used most of the money to expand his law firm and finance a lifestyle designed to create the illusion that he already was a billionaire. Dreier is now serving a twenty-year prison sentence in Illinois. Also interviewed: Gerald Shargel, Dreier's attorney; Joanne Rapuano, attorney at Dreier's law firm; and Tori LaLonde, Dreier's office manager. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen) (OAD: 10/04/09)

"The Case Against Nada Prouty" - a profile and interview with Nada Prouty, a former FBI and CIA terrorism fighter. Born in Lebanon, she came to the U.S. at age nineteen and arranged a sham marriage as a shortcut to citizenship. In 2005, FBI agents questioned her about her connections with her brother-in-law, a Lebanese restaurant owner named Talal Chahine, who was associated with Hezbollah, which was backed by Iran and on the U.S. terrorism list. She was accused of viewing classified information in the FBI ACS computer system without authorization. The CIA, however, did its own investigation and completely exonerated her of any wrongdoing. At the conclusion of her trial, Federal Judge Avern Cohn blasted the U.S. Attorney's Office for its overly zealous pursuit, but, because of the law regarding Prouty's sham marriage, he was forced to revoke her citizenship. She was fined nine hundred and seventy-five dollars, and released. The judge also blocked her deportation to Lebanon. Also interviewed is Bob Grenier, former CIA station chief in Pakistan. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Graham Messick) (OAD: 03/28/10)

"The Sharkman" - a profile and interview with Mike Rutzen, a South African who studies the great white shark and, with his cameraman Mome Hardenberg, makes a practice of swimming with them - unprotected by a cage. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: Michael H. Gavshon, Paul Bellinger) (03/28/10)

Andy Rooney Topic: "How Funny Are The 'Funny Papers'?" - Andy laments the demise of funny papers, now called comic strips (OAD: 03/28/10)

- 06/13/10 "Sabotaging The System" - a report on computer hackers who can disable critical infrastructures in major cities, disrupt essential services, steal millions from banks, infiltrate defense systems, extort public companies and sabotage our weapons systems. Interviews include: retired Admiral Mike McConnell, former Chief of National Intelligence; Jim Lewis, director, Center for Strategic and International Studies; Jim Gosler and John Mulder of Sandia National Laboratories; Sean Henry, assistant director, FBI, Bureau Cyber Division; and Congressman Jim Langevin (D-RI). (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick) (OAD: 11/08/09)
- "The Great Explorer" - an interview with famed deep sea explorer Robert Ballard, who counts among his discoveries the wrecks of the Titanic, the Bismark and PT 109, the ship commanded by President John Kennedy in World War II. Today, he sails the seas on the Nautilus, a ship specially designed for deep sea exploration, and with state-of-the-art electronics and navigation systems. Though famed for his discovery of the Titanic, he reveals that he was really on a top-secret mission for the U.S. Navy to map two nuclear submarines, the USS Scorpion and Thresher, lost in the North Atlantic during the Cold War. He also considers his discovery of tube worms, eight thousand feet below the ocean's surface, living in total darkness and thriving off the energy of the Earth and not the sun, to be his greatest discovery. Also included is undersea footage from Ballard's personal library. (C: Lara Logan - P: Max McClellan) DOUBLE-LENGTH SEGMENT (OAD: 11/29/09)
- 06/20/10 "Assault on Pelindaba" - a report on the still unsolved November 7, 2007 attack on Pelindaba, a heavily guarded nuclear plant located in South Africa. In the 1990's South Africa chose to disarm, but the highly enriched uranium (HEU), the fuel for bombs, still remains on site. Even though it was the boldest attempt ever made on a site holding bomb-grade uranium, South African officials continue to insist that it was a random act. Among those interviewed include: Pelindaba employees Ria Meiring and Anton Gerber; Matthew Dunn of Harvard's Kennedy School of Government; Ambassador Abdul Minty; Ari Van Der Bijl, general manager at Pelindaba; and Rob Adam, CEO of the Nuclear Energy Corporation of South Africa. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Graham Messick, Michael Karzis) (OAD: 11/23/08)
- "The Liquidator" - a joint interview with Irving Picard, court-appointed trustee, and his chief counsel David Sheehan, who lead the team in charge of recovering the $18 billion in assets from the Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Bernard Madoff. Picard and Sheehan plan to file suit against various members of the Madoff family for their roles at Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities. Surprisingly, most of the potentially recoverable money will not come from the Madoff family, but from some of the victims themselves -- "net winners" -- people who took out more money than they ever invested with Madoff. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin Curran, Katy Textor) (OAD: 09/27/09)
- "A Living For The Dead" - a report on the merchandising deals and other income deceased celebrities continue to generate for their estates, focusing on an interview with the agent Mark Roesler, whose client list includes some of the biggest names -- mostly deceased -- in acting, music, and sports of the 20th Century. A pioneer of the industry, Roesler founded CMG more than twenty five years ago, at a time when a celebrity's right to control or profit from their good name was buried along with them. Includes comments from: Marcus Winslow, cousin of the late actor James Dean; billionaire entertainment entrepreneur Robert Sillerman, who owns a majority percentage of the Elvis Presley estate; and Martin Cribbs, former head of the agency Greenlight. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine, Jennifer MacDonald) (OAD: 09/27/09)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "How To Become A Citizen" - Andy puts the American citizenship exam to the test. (OAD: 11/15/09)

06/27/10 "Blackwater 61" - a report on circumstances surrounding the 2004 crash in Afghanistan of a small plane (identified as "Blackwater 61") on a routine transport flight operated by Presidential Airways, the aviation subsidiary of Blackwater, the private military contractor. There were six fatalities, including Lt. Col. Mike McMahon, whose widow, former Army Col. Jeanette McMahon, is suing Presidential Airways for flagrant safety violations and reckless disregard for human life. Includes interviews with: Jeanette McMahon; Kevin McBride, pilot for Blackwater; Miguel Folch, Air Force parajumper; Dr. Todd Burd, member, autopsy investigation team; Richard Peru, Presidential Airways chief. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Draggan Mihailovich) (OAD: 02/21/10)

"Fight For A Cure" - a report on epilepsy, a brain disorder affecting nearly three million Americans and which may not be getting the research and funding it deserves. President Obama's senior advisor David Axelrod and his wife, Susan, talk about their oldest daughter, Lauren, who was diagnosed with epilepsy. Susan and two other mothers started CURE, a nonprofit organization to raise awareness and fund innovative epilepsy research. Also interviewed: Dr. Frances Jensen of Children's Hospital in Boston; Captain Pat Horan, a veteran who developed epilepsy after sustaining head injuries in Baghdad, and his wife, Patty; Monica Lovelace, an epilepsy patient who is part of a clinical trial at California Pacific Medical Center in San Francisco; and Dr. Peter Weber, a neurosurgeon who is treating Monica. (C: Katie Couric - P: Kyra Damron) (OAD: 10/25/09)

"Cameron's Avatar" - an interview with filmmaker James Cameron, who directed "Titanic", the most profitable movie ever made. His next project is "Avatar", a $400 million 3D science fiction fantasy that mixes real actors with computer generated creatures, the sum of which he believes will change the movie business forever. (C: Morley Safer - P: David Browning) (OAD: 11/22/09)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

06/05/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadly Prophecy" - Faylene Eaves, divorced Arizona mother of two, married Doug Grant, a divorced single dad, in 1993. They were both Mormons. Faylene was especially devout, according to Doug's sister, Tammy Fuentes, who also says that, several years later, Faylene told her of receiving a message from God telling her that Doug had a girlfriend and that she should divorce him. Doug acquiesced. He then planned to marry Hilary Dewitt, but in August 2001, Faylene wanted to re-marry him, citing a revelation from God that she should put her family back together. They did re-marry, and to celebrate their reunion, vacationed in the Timpanogas National Park in Utah. There, according to Doug, Faylene thought she had a vision of Jesus in the clouds and fell off a cliff while trying to get a better look. She survived, but three days later was found drowned in her bathtub, her blood full of the muscle relaxants and sleeping medication (Ambien) that had been prescribed after her fall. As a precaution against Faylene taking both drugs together, the physician's assistant had told Doug not to fill the Ambien prescription without calling him first -- but Doug had done so anyway. In the journal that Faylene had kept, she seemed to suggest that it was God's will that she die "to fulfill a mission on the other side of the veil." And, in letters to Hilary Dewitt, Faylene had written that she wanted Hilary to marry Doug after she died -- which he did, just weeks after Faylene's death. Although Faylene's death was initially ruled an accident, pressure from her family made the police eventually take a closer look at Doug Grant. He had never called 911 upon discovering Faylene in the tub. Because of this, and because of incriminating information provided by Jim McElyea, an old friend of Doug, police arrested Doug in the summer of 2005 for the murder of his wife, Faylene. In mid-November 2008, his trial began; in March 2009, he was convicted of manslaughter. Concluding onscreen graphics: Jenna is suing Doug Grant for the wrongful death of her mother. Faylene and Doug's two sons live with Hilary Dewitt, who is their legal guardian. Concluding onscreen graphics for this 06/05/10 rebroadcast: Last week, Jenna won a civil suit against her stepfather, Doug Grant, for the wrongful death of her mother. The monetary award has not been decided. Includes interviews with: Jenna Stradling, daughter of the late Faylene Grant; Doug Grant, widower of Faylene Grant; Chad White, physician's assistant, friend of Doug Grant; Paul Rubin, reporter; Juan Martinez, prosecutor; Hilary Dewitt, second wife of Doug Grant; Mel McDonald, attorney for Doug Grant; Tammy Fuentes, sister of Doug Grant; Sy Ray, detective; Jim McElyea, friend of Doug Grant. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 06/12/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Dark Voyage" - A report on the November 2004 murders of Tom and Jackie Hawks, an Arizona couple who were killed in a well-thought-out, diabolical plot. Former child actor Skylar Deleon feigned interest in buying the couple's yacht and, with the help of accomplices Alonso Machain (a prison guard) and John Fitzgerald Kennedy (a Los Angeles gang member), killed them during a test cruise by tying them to an anchor and throwing them overboard from the yacht off Southern California. During the cruise, the Hawks had been forced to sign over ownership of their yacht and power of attorney for their bank accounts. Police investigation also revealed the involvement of Deleon's wife, Jennifer, in the murder plot. Deleon was found guilty of murder and sentenced to death. His wife was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to two life terms in prison. Kennedy was also found guilty and sentenced to death. Machain, who made a full confession, has not been tried; he's hoping for leniency. Concluding onscreen graphics for this 06/12/10 rebroadcast: Alonso Machain was found guilty and sentenced to 21 years in prison. Included are interviews with: Dave Byington, a Newport Beach, CA detective; Ryan and Matt Hawks, Tom Hawks' sons; Jim Hawks, Tom's brother; Skylar Deleon, the mastermind; Orange County Prosecutor Matt Murphy. (C: Maureen Maher - P: James Stolz) (OAD: 05/02/09)
- 06/19/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Case For Murder" (9:00-10:00p) - On June 2, 2007, the body of thirty-six-year-old Hugues de la Plaza was found in his locked San Francisco apartment. He had been stabbed in the neck, chest and stomach. His apartment was covered in blood, and the scene seemed to have all the characteristics of a homicide -- but there was no sign of a struggle, no sign of anyone else's DNA at the scene, and no image of an assailant on nearby security cameras. The San Francisco Medical Examiner's office classified the cause of his death as "undetermined," which raised the possibility of suicide. However, there was no bloody weapon found in his apartment. Friends and family claim that he was not suicidal and would never have killed himself. De la Plaza's father, Francois, a French citizen, hired an independent private investigator, John Murphy, and was also able to call in French authorities to conduct their own investigation. Murphy and the French investigators independently concluded that Hugues de la Plaza was a homicide victim. In addition, an outside review of the case, commissioned by the San Francisco Police Department, concluded that de la Plaza's death was a homicide. Despite these several independent findings, San Francisco authorities still classify the cause of de la Plaza's death as "undetermined." Includes interviews with: Melissa Nix, former girlfriend of de la Plaza; Dr. Venus Azar, Assistant Medical Examiner; Neil Zarama, co-worker of de la Plaza; Mark Colacito, boss and friend of de la Plaza; Francois de la Plaza, father of Hugues; Shamon Stabile and Kris Moore, paramedics; Antonio Casillas, Inspector, San Francisco Police; Orion Denley and Gitanjali Bhushan, neighbors of de la Plaza; John Murphy, private investigator; Christophe Schuhmann, friend of de la Plaza. Concluding onscreen graphics for this 06/19/10 rebroadcast: The San Francisco Police Department and French authorities are continuing their investigations into the death of Hugues de la Plaza. - 06/19/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Daddy's Girl" (10:00-11:00p) - On July 19, 2007, Timothy MacNeil, a prominent defense attorney, was shot to death in his San, Diego, California home. The only witness was his 17-year-old stepdaughter, Brae Hansen, who was found tied up at the scene. She told police that a masked gunman had broken in and committed the murder, but had left her alive. However, further police interrogation of Hansen led to her arrest as a suspect; and she also implicated her brother, Nathan Gann, in the murder. Both suspects confessed separately to participation in plotting the murder of their stepfather, but each accused the other of being the instigator. They were both charged with first degree murder by means of lying in wait -- a special circumstance that carries a mandatory life sentence. Nathan went on trial in November 2008; it resulted in a hung jury. Prosecutors then made the decision to try the siblings at the same time, in the same courtroom, but with two separate juries. Both Hansen and Gann were found guilty by their respective juries. They will both be sentenced on June 19 (2009). Includes interviews with: Brae Hansen, MacNeil's stepdaughter; Nathan Gann, MacNeil's stepson; Kim Mara-Bieda, MacNeil's girlfriend; J.C. Smith and Brett Burkett, San Diego homicide investigators; Rick MacNeil, Timothy's brother; Erin MacNeil Ellison, daughter of Timothy MacNeil; Ricardo Garcia, Nathan's defense attorney; Troy Britt, Brae's defense attorney. Concluding onscreen graphics for this 06/19/10 rebroadcast: Brae Hansen was sentenced to life in prison without parole. Nathan Gann got twenty-five years to life. He will be eligible for parole in 2032. Both are appealing their convictions. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

06/26/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Time To Kill" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the September 12, 2001 disappearance of Michele Harris, a resident of Tioga County, New York. Michele, a mother of four, was involved in a bitter divorce with her husband, Cal Harris. He claimed she did not return home on the evening of September 11, 2001; her empty van was discovered at the end of their driveway the next morning. Cal denied any involvement and when no evidence was found during a search of the Harris home, he suggested to investigators that they take a closer look at Michele's personal life. Investigators uncovered that Michele was involved with two different men, both of whom had seen Michele the night she disappeared. Two days after the initial search, a forensic specialist was sent to the Harris home and found tiny specks of blood on a kitchen doorway, something that had been overlooked during the initial investigation. With the discovery of a possible crime scene, as well as Cal's refusal to take a polygraph, focus was placed on Cal, who began a relationship with a former girlfriend just eighteen days after Michele's disappearance. On September 30, 2005, Cal Harris was arrested and charged with murder. The trial began on May 21, 2007 and ultimately, he was found guilty of second degree murder. Just days before Cal Harris was to be sentenced, a new witness came forward and claimed to have driven past the Harris driveway around dawn on September 12, 2001, and had seen a man and a woman, who appeared to be arguing. According to this new eyewitness, the woman resembled Michele, but the man did not look like Cal. With this new information, the judge threw out Cal's conviction for the murder of his wife and ordered a new trial. It will be at least a year before Cal Harris is tried again. Update for the 02/13/10 (second) rebroadcast: In July of 2009, Cal Harris once again went on trial. After a three-week trial, the jury found him guilty again. Harris was sentenced to twenty-five years to life in prison. He plans to appeal for a third trial. The search for Michele's body continues. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Lisa Freed, Marc B. Goldbaum). OAD: 11/10/07. 1st rebroadcast: 06/24/08, which includes brief update in the form of an onscreen text graphic at the conclusion; the 2nd rebroadcast (02/13/10) includes new video footage and an updated text graphic about the second trial, held in 2009.

06/26/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Haunted" (10:00-11:00p) - In July 2002, Mike Sisco and his fiancée Karen Harkness were shot to death in Karen's Topeka, Kansas home. Police investigation ultimately focussed on Dana Chandler, Mike's ex-wife and the mother of his two children. Mike and Dana had gone through a bitter divorce in 1998, and Mike had custody of the children. Dana left Kansas, but she then established an ongoing pattern of harassing and stalking her ex-husband, and also harassing Karen on the phone. Dana's obsession convinced family members that she was involved in the murders, but no hard evidence has ever linked her to the crimes. The families believe that evidence that might have implicated her was lost or destroyed in the initial police investigation of the crime scene. So, although police strongly suspected Dana's involvement in the murders, she was never arrested or charged. In 2007, an independent analysis of the evidence, done by retired New York Lieutenant Commander Vernon Geberth, concluded that Dana Chandler was "the one and only person who had the motive, means, and opportunity to commit these murders". In January 2009, Topeka got a new district attorney, Chad Taylor, who says that the Harkness-Sisco case is now a priority. Onscreen graphics at conclusion: Hailey Sisco has been granted a permanent restraining order against her mother. District Attorney Chad Taylor is awaiting the results of new DNA testing. The investigation remains active. Concluding onscreen graphics for this 06/26/10 rebroadcast: DNA testing turned up no new usable evidence. Includes interviews with: Harold Worswick, father of Karen Harkness; Carol Sisco Engler, mother of Mike Sisco; Richard Volle, detective, Topeka police; Dustin Sisco, son of Mike Sisco and Dana Chandler; Hailey Sisco, daughter of Mike Sisco and Dana Chandler; Erin Sutton, daughter of Karen Harkness; Chad Harkness, son of Karen Harkness; Cathy and Mark Boots, Mike Sisco's sister and his brother-in-law; Joseph Moura and Paul Ciolino, private detectives working for 48 HOURS; Tim Sisco, Mike's brother; Mike Worswick, Karen Harkness' brother; Chad Taylor, Topeka district attorney.
